NOTEWORTHY >>

Church mailboxes have been reorganized, so your location may have changed. Your mail is in the slot above your name. Everyone who is a regular attender should have a box. If you would like a mailbox and have not been assigned one, please contact our secretary, Arline Bontrager.

A Financial Peace University series will begin during the Sunday school hour next week, January 14th. You will watch the video at home and then discuss it during the class time. Please contact John Miller if you are interested in joining.

The official sign-up for our 2018 Ladies Retreat will begin next Sunday, January 14th and go through January 28th. All ladies ages 15 years and older are invited to attend a weekend getaway at the Blue Gate Garden Inn on March 16th & 17th. In order to secure your spot, you will need to register and pay a $45 nonrefundable fee. This fee covers your overnight lodging and food. If you paid during the preliminary sign-up, your spot is secured.

We welcome everyone to join us in a focused "15 Minutes of Praise" every day for the first 30 days of the New Year. Feel free to pick up a "Let's Just Praise the Lord" booklet on the credenza, as a guide.

The MCC Canner will be in Goshen at The Depot on January 8-18, 2018. Griner's day to help is Monday the 15th. The canning day is from 7 am to 8:30 pm and you can help any length of time during those hours. However, 1:30 to 4:30 is when help is needed the most. If you have questions, contact Lavern Cross.

Mattie St. John was moved yesterday to Evergreen Manor Nursing Home in Montpelier, OH. Praise the Lord that she is talking more, but please continue to pray for healing in her body and for the family as they adjust to these changes.
