Announcements

Griner Mailboxes: Please remember to pick up your mail! If you do not have a mailbox, please let Arline know so she can get one set up for you. We will soon be re-alphabetizing the mailboxes!

Ladies Bible Study: The Ladies Bible Study will again be on Tuesday evening, at 6:00pm.

Our Daily Bread: The March-April-May issue is here. Feel free to pick up a copy and enjoy the reading as part of your daily devotions with God. They are on the round table in the lobby.

I wait for the Lord, my soul doth wait, and in His word do, I hope. Ps 130:5 KJV

Have you ever been lied to? I don't have to know your story to know the answer to that question—we've all been deceived at some point in our lives. Whether the lie is big or small, we learn something when someone is dishonest with us. We learn not to trust that person's word.

I recently had an experience with a person who promised to help me in a certain way. When receiving help took longer than expected, I tried to be patient, believing the person was just busy or that something else had come up and he would to me eventually. He kept putting me off but never withdrew his offer to help. He just kept promising to help soon. Except he never did. Ever God's Word is different. I can put my hope in the Word and wait with confidence that I won't be disappointed. John 1:14 says that in Jesus "the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us" (KJV). So, when I wait, as the psalmist says, I can wait with hope because my hope is found in Jesus. What a world of difference it makes if I'm waiting on Him instead of waiting on people to fulfill my needs. –Gwen Ford Faulkenberry

Faith Step: Jesus is never late. He never provides the wrong thing or too little of it or too much. He's never confused about what you need. He's never too busy or too tired. He has the resources and the wisdom. His timing is perfect. Wait, with hope, for Him.
